Donations Policy

DONATIONS COLLECTED AT THE FUNERAL SERVICE

- donations will be collected in a locked box or sealed container marked with the funeral details.
- the donations box will be handed to a family member after the service, and they will be asked to sign a register as confirmation of receipt.
- If it is not possible to hand the donations to a family member the box will be taken back to the office and remain sealed until collected by the next of kin.

INTERNET DONATION SITES

Internet donations sites (i.e. Memory Giving, Just Giving, Much Loved, etc) handle the administration of donations made online

DONATIONS RECEIVED IN THE OFFICE OR BRANCH

Any cheque donations received to the office are forwarded to the next of kin. We do not accept cash donations in the office. The person making the donation will be asked to make arrangements to donate directly to the charity.

Any confirmation received from Charities following a service are forwarded directly to the next of kin.
